BACKGROUND

On January 22, 2025, the Portland City Council heard a joint presentation from Mayor Wilson and Jillian Schoene on regional coordination to end unsheltered homelessness, including an overview of Mayor Wilson's blueprint, focused on two key initiatives: more overnight shelters and more day centers.

The blueprint emphasizes success being dependent on partnership among many government agencies, nonprofits, religious groups, advocates, and community leaders who champion fundamental issues like affordable housing, recovery from drug and alcohol addiction, social work, disability rights, community health, and mental health.

To ensure strong communication across regional governments, the presenters offer a similar presentation to Metro Council, as the Council continues conversations about integrated and expanded regional supportive housing services and affordable housing.
