INTRODUCTION

This report provides a high-level summary of the public and stakeholder engagement and consultation that was conducted to support the High Capacity Transit (HCT) Strategy Update for the 2023 Regional Transportation Plan (RTP). The project team organized or participated in dozens of outreach activities, and the feedback from these activities was used to shape and refine the HCT Strategy Update. This summary lists these outreach activities, outlines the groups of community members, stakeholders, and regional leaders that were involved, and summarizes the salient points of feedback received through the planning process.

HCT is a key element of the 2040 Growth Concept, a long-range plan adopted by the Metro Council in 1995. As a part of the 2023 RTP, the HCT Strategy will identify priority areas for investments that would provide the most benefit to the most people.

Public and stakeholder outreach for the HCT Strategy Update was closely coordinated with the overall planning and engagement for the 2023 RTP process.

Outreach for the HCT Strategy Update was built on a foundation of recent public and stakeholder outreach initiatives, including the 2009 HCT Plan, the 2018 Regional Transit Strategy, and the 2023 RTP Phase 1 scoping conversations, among others. The project team considered this feedback and engagement when deciding how to tailor outreach efforts for this Strategy Update.

Engagement Goals

HCT engagement goals were the same as those for the broader 2023 RTP planning process, and are as follows:

- Learn about the transportation needs and priorities of communities across greater Portland.
- Reflect the priorities identified through community engagement and prioritize the input provided by communities of color, the disability community and communities with limited English proficiency, in the elements of the 2023 RTP that guide investment decisions.
- Build support for and momentum to achieve community-driven objectives and build public trust in Metro's transportation planning process.
- Strengthen existing and build new partnerships with local, regional, state and federal governments, Tribes, business and community leaders, academic institutions and historically underrepresented communities including Black, Indigenous and people of color, people with disabilities, people with low incomes and people with limited English proficiency, as well as youth and older adults for sustained involvement in decision-making.

The public engagement process was organized by four major milestones, which aligned with the development phases of the HCT Strategy Update. These milestones are described here, and detailed further below:

- Milestone 1 focused on the policy framework for HCT and reflected on changes since developing the 2018 RTP.
- Milestone 2 refined the network vision and discussed corridor readiness factors.
- Milestone 3 reviewed the corridor prioritization, organized by “tiers,” and evaluated whether the corridors meet the readiness factors.
- Milestone 4 will gather feedback on the Draft HCT Strategy.

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT OVERVIEW

Feedback through the engagement and consultation process spanned a variety of topics, including general requests for service improvements, suggestions for improving access to transit, and interest in prioritizing specific corridors. However, several overarching themes emerged through the process. These include the desire to:

- Improve regional HCT connections without routing through downtown Portland. Demand to travel to the city center has been waning with the reduction in commuter traffic and the growth of other regional centers. Instead, people want to travel between regional centers directly, without passing through downtown Portland.
- Improve safety and security while accessing and using the transit system. Responses frequently mentioned concern for personal safety while riding transit, waiting at transit stops, and when traveling on streets and sidewalks to access transit stops.
- Locate transit corridors and stops convenient for accessing job centers. Responses affirmed that HCT access to employment opportunities is good for both employers and employees, improving access to talent and jobs.
- Improve existing transit service. Faster and more frequent service along existing routes would make transit more attractive to potential riders.
- Align HCT investments with future tolling. Feedback suggested HCT could provide an alternative to driving tolled routes, and could be a tool to mitigate traffic diversion.
- Define clearly what HCT includes and HCT's objectives. The public may not always understand what “high capacity transit” means or what it includes. A clear definition will help with planning efforts, and understanding its objectives will better frame the priority corridors.

MILESTONE 1: FRAMEWORK

In Milestone 1, the project team introduced the HCT Strategy Update to the public, stakeholders, and leaders in the region. Outreach focused on shaping the HCT policy framework and considering regional transportation changes related to HCT since developing the 2018 RTP. Feedback was used to help shape the HCT policy framework.

Milestone 1 Feedback Summary

Feedback from Milestone 1 highlighted a desire to strengthen the transit network with HCT connections between regional centers. Suggestions included growing the network to serve areas of expected growth and prioritizing equity areas with BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, and People of Color) communities. Feedback indicated the importance of making HCT accessible to people with mobility impairments and of providing pedestrian and biking connections to HCT stops. Safety and security were mentioned multiple times as a perceived barrier to transit use.

Access to and from the Transit System

- Stakeholders emphasized how streets, transit stations, and transit vehicles need to be more accessible for people in wheelchairs. Station elevators are often broken, making the station inaccessible to someone using a wheelchair. Improve maintenance with existing elevators and provide ramps instead or to supplement elevators.
- Stakeholders suggested educating the community and Metro employees about disability and accessibility issues.
- Community members expressed concern about the existing biking and pedestrian connections to transit.
- Stakeholders expressed desire to improve transit connections at the ends of transit lines by connecting to other transit providers or to transit hubs.
- Stakeholders suggested improving amenities at transit stops toward the ends of transit lines to make them more comfortable for people who may be waiting a while.

Environmental Impacts

- Stakeholders and regional leaders were interested in using HCT to help meet the requirements for Climate Friendly Equitable Communities.
- Stakeholders were concerned about transit's negative impacts to air quality and the climate crisis.

HCT Network

- Regional leaders and stakeholders expressed a desire to connect regional centers without going through downtown Portland.
- Stakeholders suggested growing the transit network to support where people are traveling now and where the region is expected to grow, with a focus on areas zoned for mixed use.
- Stakeholders recommended prioritizing equity areas and areas with BIPOC communities.
- Regional leaders expressed a desire to improve WES Commuter Rail service as an HCT corridor and to extend it to Salem.
- Regional leaders expressed a desire to extend HCT along I-205 to Tigard Triangle, Wilsonville, and Tualatin.
- Regional leaders suggested using bus-on-shoulder (or light rail on ODOT right of way) to make connections on highways. They suggested pursuing funding from the Statewide Transportation Improvement Fund (STIF) and considering how it could align with congestion pricing.
- Stakeholders suggested considering effects from tolling when defining corridors.
- Stakeholders suggested connecting with Clark County.

- Stakeholders suggested creating an express light rail line to downtown Portland.
- Regional leaders mentioned that Powell Boulevard was not an attractive corridor because it had already been studied for HCT and was passed over.

Planning for HCT Investments

- Regional leaders recommended using this process to position for FTA funding.
- Stakeholders recommended focusing on outcomes as opposed to a specific mode.
- Stakeholders recommended coordinating with concurrent projects, such as the Westside Multimodal Improvements Study and the Climate Smart Strategy.
- Stakeholders suggested Metro incorporate restorative justice and BIPOC leaders in the planning process.

Transit Service

- Regional leaders and the public expressed desire for faster transit service. The public also expressed desire for improved frequency. Survey results revealed that travel time is the primary factor for deciding which transportation mode the public chooses for a given trip.
- Regional leaders suggested improving transit service to destinations as well as improving service in the outer areas of the region.
- Stakeholders expressed a desire for improving night and evening service to help employees get to and from late shifts.
- Stakeholders suggested that this would be a good time to improve transit to entice people back after COVID.
- Feedback was mixed on how to prioritize service improvements. Public comments suggested improving service on existing routes or corridors, while regional leaders emphasized prioritizing new routes where none currently exist.

Transportation and Safety Concerns

- Regional leaders and the public expressed concern about safety and security on transit.
- The public also expressed concern about safety and security while walking or biking.
- The public and stakeholders expressed concern about regional traffic congestion.
- Stakeholders suggested improving curb management to help local businesses. They suggested establishing dedicated loading zones and dedicated parking for mobile businesses and local residents.

MILESTONE 2: VISION

In Milestone 2, the project team shared the draft vision for the HCT Strategy Update. Outreach focused on refining this vision and better understanding what factors make a corridor ready for an HCT investment. Feedback was used to shape the initial tiers of corridors, which were later shared in Milestone 3.

Milestone 2 Feedback Summary

Stakeholders, the public, and elected officials often had similar ideas for the HCT vision. Many expressed a desire to expand the transit service area, with a particular focus on more connections in Washington and Clackamas counties. People suggested connecting HCT investments to better serve equity populations and target employment hubs. Many were interested in how HCT investments might relate to future tolling. The vision for HCT generally centered around an expanded network that provided faster trips to job centers while strengthening existing connections.

- The public and stakeholders were interested in grade separation of transit to provide faster connections, including a tunnel through downtown.
- The public and stakeholders called for further investment in commuter rail.
- The business community and stakeholders raised concerns about insufficient frequency during non-peak hours.
- The business community mentioned interest in having more one- or two-seat rides to reduce transfers and increase ease of access to large campus sites for employees.

Feedback was used to refine corridor priorities and finalize tiers.

Milestone 3 Feedback Summary

Feedback from Milestone 3 was largely centered on corridor prioritization and refining the corridor alignments. Stakeholders and community members also suggested other improvements that would make transit a more viable transportation option, such as improved security, service, and amenities. Public input was largely supportive of the HCT vision, with a majority of survey respondents indicating they would use HCT more often if the vision were implemented.

Access to and from the Transit System

- Stakeholders emphasized how transit vehicles need to be more accessible, particularly articulated buses: not all ramps can be deployed for all-door boarding, these buses cannot accommodate courtesy stops during inclement weather, and they have reduced functionality for mobility devices.
