BACKGROUND

Metro's Public Engagement Review Committee (PERC) convenes three times a year and consists of at-large community members, representatives from three community organizations, and public involvement staff from Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties.

ANALYSIS/INFORMATION

The PERC serves as a key component of Metro's ongoing efforts to develop and implement successful public engagement processes. Members are appointed to three-year terms on a rotating schedule.

One representative from a community organization and three at-large community representatives' terms have expired.

Staff opened an application process and engaged community stakeholders, local agencies and jurisdictions to recruit committee applicants with public involvement experience, strong community connections, and a diverse geographic and demographic representation.

Staff received applications and selected four that meet the following criteria:

- A commitment to community engagement
- Demonstrated skills, knowledge or experience that apply to principles of citizen involvement adopted by Metro
- Experience working with underrepresented communities.

After consulting with councilors, the communications director, and staff, the Metro Council President has appointed the following individuals to PERC for three-year terms: Libra Forde, Sprinavasa Brown, Begona Rodriguez Liern and Fiona Yau-Luu.
