

Metro

Regional Investment Strategy

Parks & Nature: Potential bond renewal

Council work session
March 19, 2019

Agenda for today

Size, scope, criteria

Performance
metrics

Feedback from focused engagement

Process and next steps

Parks and nature
make this place.

People need
parks and nature.

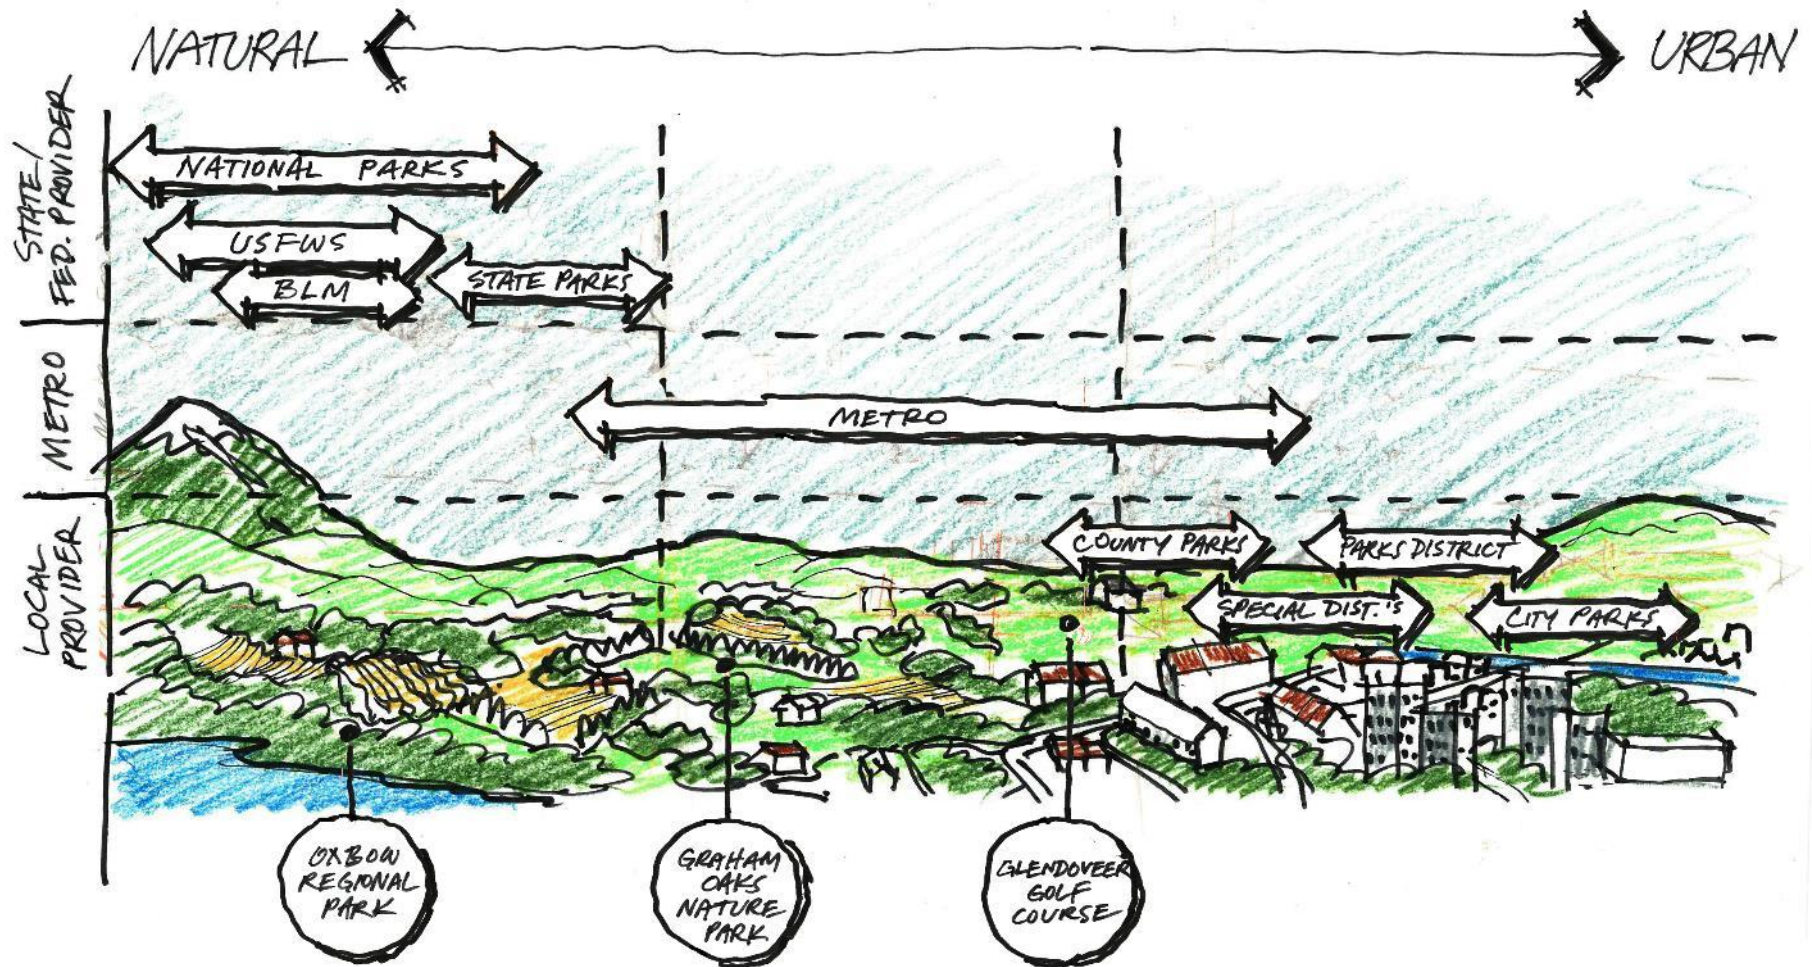

People support
parks and nature.

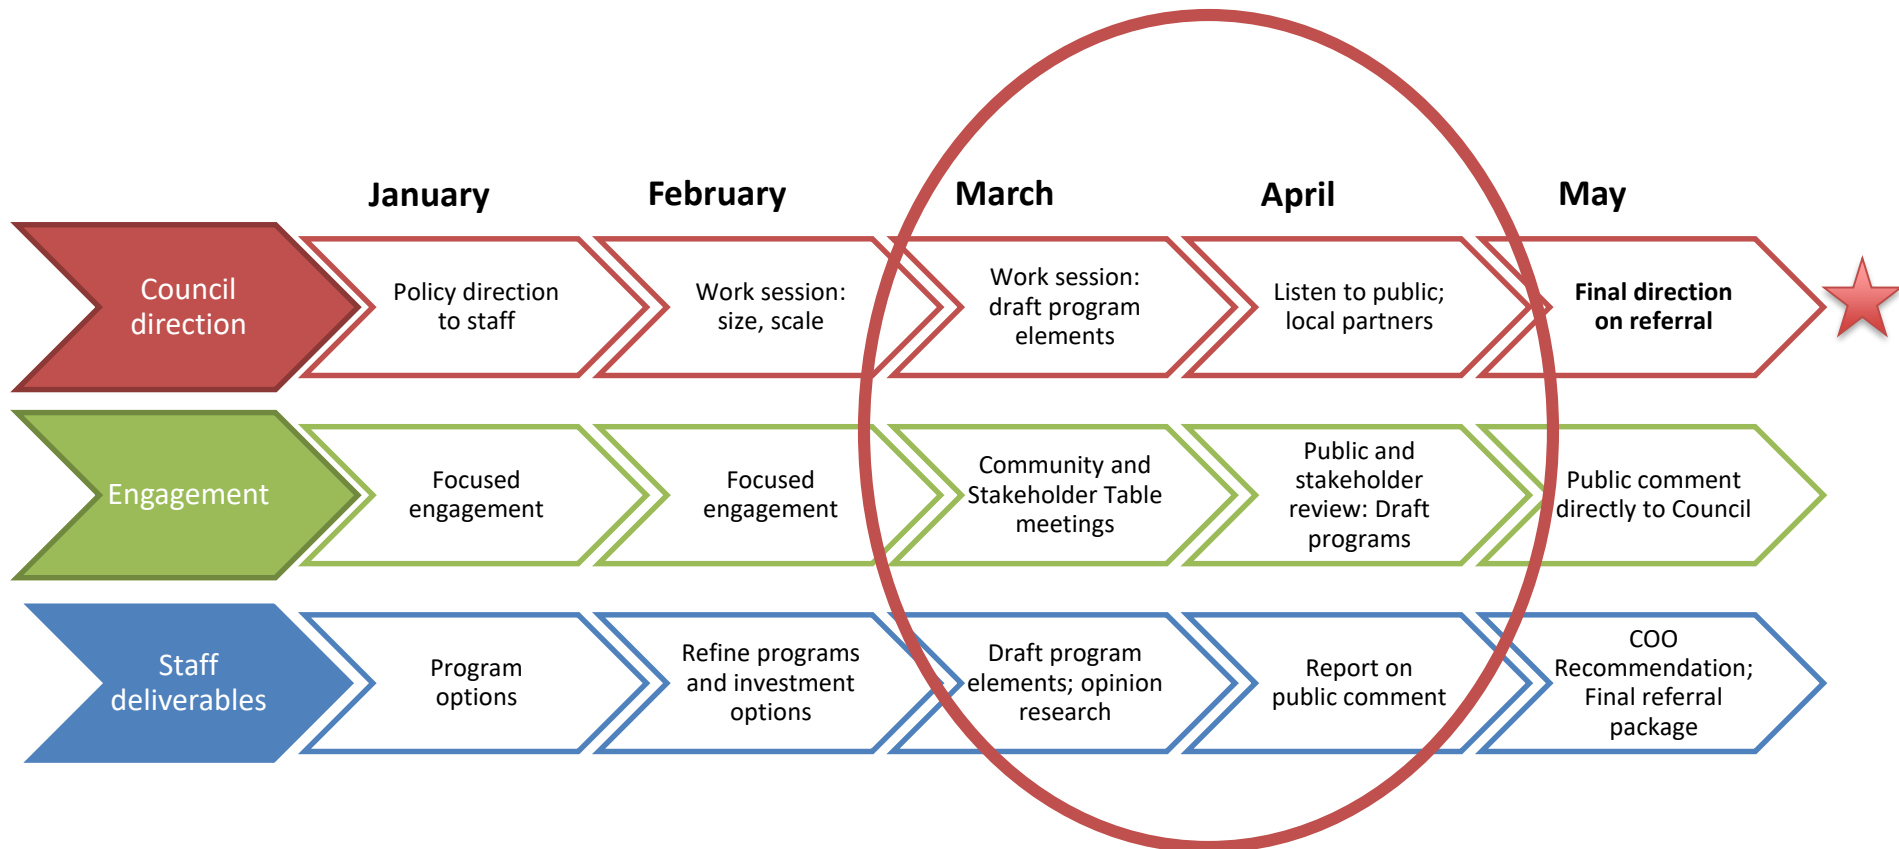

Now, parks and nature need us.

Metro has a key role to play.

Path to referral decision

Public engagement materials

Size, scope, criteria

Six program areas

Community engagement

- Public comment period
April 4-29

Maps and potential projects

Potential bond renewal program investments

Land acquisition/restoration

Local park projects

Nature in Neighborhood grants

Metro capital projects

Trail acquisition and development

Urban transformation

Performance measures

Connecting people to nature

Proximity – distribution, location, size, demographic analysis

Visitor amenities – research, surveys, engagement

Racial equity and local share

Urban transformation – Two concepts for discussion

Concept A – Stand alone program

- New name
- Program purpose, outcomes
- Decision-making
- Racial equity and accountability

Concept B – Nature in Neighborhoods

- Develop process detail – application or other
- Project review and selection committee
- Different or additional/new requirements

April engagement activities

- Stakeholder Table - April 8
- MPAC – April 10
- Community forum – April 16
- CORE – April 18
- Focused engagement and outreach - ongoing
- Online survey, media, etc.

Final questions or direction?

Arts and events
Garbage and recycling
Land and transportation
Oregon Zoo
Parks and nature

oregonmetro.gov