Attachment D: Sheet 1

Area 1: Single-Use Food Service Items

	Metro Action	Metro Implementation Costs	Dependencies	Council Action Timeframe	Implementation Time Frame	Public and stakeholder acceptance	Scale of Impacted Parties	Things to Figure Out
Single-use statement and single-use food service items by request	(1) Council adopts statement of intent to address single-use items	Education and awareness campaign Compliance activities	None	2020 Q3	2021 Q3	Minimal opposition	Thousands of businesses, including Metro venues	Approach to compliance
	(2) Council adopts regional "by-request by customer" requirement for the provision of stirrers, utensils and individually packaged condiments for dine-in, drive-through, take-out or delivery					Public support. Opposition from some food service businesses and some local governments.

	Metro Action	Metro Implementation Costs	Dependencies	Council Action Timeframe	Implementation Time Frame	Public and stakeholder acceptance	Scale of Impacted Parties	Things to Figure Out
Single-use food packaging reduction and recycling policy	(1) Council adopts resolution stating intent in 2022 to ban single-use food service take-out packaging that cannot be recycled in local programs and intent to support efforts by businesses to shift to recyclable packaging and durable reusable food serviceware	Education and awareness campaign, and technical assistance Financial support for incentives or grants that support shift to reusables	Ability to recycle some types of food service packaging locally	2020 Q3	2022 Q1	Public support. Likely support from some members of business community and opposition from others. Some opposition from those who would like to see Styrofoam banned regardless of recycling availability. Likely opposition from compostable food serviceware manufacturers if their materials are banned	Thousands of businesses, including Metro venues	Recycling markets and their capacity Approach to compliance
	(2) Council adopts the ban on single-use food service take-out packaging that cannot be recycled in local programs			2021 Q4				